SECTION B: COMPREHENSION: Read the following passage carefully and then answer the questions that follows.

A longtime ago, there was Mr. Monkey and his wife who had a garden full of different crops such as beans, pea and cabbages.

They also had plenty of yams. Mr And Mrs Monkey worked very hard day and night. During the dry season, they watered their garden by using water from the nearby well.

Near their garden lived Mr tortoise who was slow and lazy. Mr Tortoise never did any work. He used to sing his favourite songs all day while Mr. Monkey and his wife worked in their garden.

There was a lot of food in Mr Monkey's house. The house was so small that it could hardly keep all the food from the garden. This was different from Mr. Tortoise's house since there was no food at all. When Mr. Tortoise wanted some food, he got it by telling stories and singing songs. He used to tell children from different homes to take food along when going to listen to the stories and songs.

The children's parents discovered that Mr tortoise was using their children for his survival.

So they stopped their children from going there hence tortoise suffered from hunger.

One day Mr Tortoise sent his son to Mr Monkey's house to borrow some food and promised to pay him the next day. Mr Monkey gave Mr tortoise some food. The following day Mr. Monkey went to Mr. tortoise's house and asked to be paid his money Mr Tortoise told him not to worry as he would pay him "the next day". Unfortunately for Mr Monkey "the next day never comes".
